

Are you looking for an opportunity to prove to you—as one of the dwindling few in this community who are strangers to the Live Store—the multitudinous merits of our modern clothing service.

Whatever measure of success this store has won is due solely and only to the growing favor in which it is held by your fellow citizens. And we respectfully submit that the excited position which their verdict accords us is subject worthy your consideration.

What is it these men find here that they can find nowhere else?

What is it these men find here that clothes to choose from—that draws them here again and again for KUPPENHEIMER clothes at $18 to $35?

Being gifted with large bumps of patience and persistence, we wait for you to pay us a neighborly call and see.

FLIES FEAR ELECTRIC FANS

About the only thing a fly or mosquito afraid of is an electric fan.

While it is not known why these little pests fear the whirling blades, it is certain, however, that an Electric Fan will keep flies off the window and show cases, and from the vegetable and other foodstuff exposed for sale, even though the breeze is not allowed to play over the places or goods to be protected. Merchants find the Electric Fan invaluable for keeping flies out of their stores. A fan is placed near the main entrance to the store, so that the air current flows toward the doorway, very few flies will enter.

The fly, that deadliest of household pests, drives out the stagnant air and hot, stuffy rooms. It makes no comfort and lingers not where Electric Fans constantly and vigorously allow clean, pure, cool air to abundantly circulate in every nook and corner.

DAN SCOTT ATTACKED

In Gibson House Lobby—Arms Pinioned While Trainer Baker Stabbed Him With Knife.

Does Dan W. Scott bear a charmed life?

It seems so from the many narrow escapes he has passed through. Last Friday night in the lobby of the Gibson House, Cincinnati, former Sheriff Scott of Fayette County, and an ex-Missouri county man, who married Miss Maudie Reynolds of Dover, was attacked by J. H. Baker, a horse trainer, also of Lexington and viciously stabbed several times with a knife, while a man, unknown, pinioned Scott's arms behind him.

The stabbing of Scott followed an argument between Scott and Baker as to being engaged in at the Lantana Race track Friday afternoon and which was renewed in the lobby of the hotel. Baker was arrested on a charge of cutting to kill, which later was changed to suspicion and then again to cutting to kill. The prisoner was released on bond of $1,000 signed by Robert J. O'Brien, prominent publican politician and cafe owner.

Wife With Him on Return.
(Sunday's Lexington Herald.)
Ex-Sheriff Dan W. Scott, who was cut and severely wounded Friday night by James H. Baker in the Gibson House lobby at Cincinnati, was removed yesterday from the City Hospital at Cincinnati where he was taken immediately after the cutting, back to his room at the Gibson House, and was later brought to Lexington. His wife left early yesterday morning for Cincinnati and returned with him last night.

Dan Scott has been the object of the wrath of Lexington's Democratic political thugs and politicians ever since his election as sheriff. He was attacked on the street by a policeman and shot, his life being saved by the accidental appearance of a young lady, who was directly between Scott and the policeman.

That little girl of yesterday is a young lady today—her summer frocks are most becoming, it is the happiest time of her young life.

Nothing but a picture can keep her as she is. Now really isn't it worth a picture?

MEETING CLOSES

Great Gathering Of Negro Baptists at Bethel Church Ends With Immense Street Parade

The last day of the great Sunday School meeting at Bethel Church Saturday opened with memorial service conducted by Rev. H. B. Webster, Revs. T. J. Smith, R. Jackson, A. W. Nix, who spoke words of encouragement to the convention, and Miss Nannie Wood.

Rev. W. A. Jones, Mr. Lane, Prof. W. H. Mayo were present and spoke encouragingly to the convention. The young man or woman who are out until the wee hours Saturday night are not fit to instruct a class in Sunday School Sunday morning, or lead them on to Jesus, shouted Rev. Jones.

The remaining part of the program was taken up, and the topics were ably discussed by the delegates from various schools.

The report of the different committees was above the average. A smile was seen on the face of all at the convention when our president, Dr. W. T. Aminger of S. U. U. appeared on the scene.

Promptly at 3 o'clock p. m. more than 300 Sunday School workers formed a line of march led by Rev. R. Jackson, pastor of Bethel Baptist Church, and Miss M. E. Williams, president of the convention, and marched through the principal streets of Maysville, this new feature in our convention created a great deal of favorable comment and its influence for good can not be estimated. We will make it one thousand next year, shouted one in the line of march.

8:00 P. M.—After some business Mrs. Susie E. Mitchell, matron of State University charmed the convention with a solo. Little Miss Martin E. Horner, of Georgetown brought forth applause from the convention with a reading.

Mr. Henry Allen Boyd, assistant secretary of the National Baptist Publishing Board, Nashville, Tenn., was presented, who in an interesting manner gave a glowing account of the National Baptist Publishing House. Subject: Forward Sunday School Movement.

Mr. Boyd scored the S. S. teacher for the manner in which they come before their classes. It is a mistake to denounce the pleasures of the young people without substituting something better. The pastors, deacons and church members after their young people, teach them to obey or disorder will reign. He also declared that no Sunday School teacher could teach his daughter and play cards or tango. The speaker made a strong appeal for men with backbone and for the protection of our homes and women. Mr. Boyd urged that the pastors and superintendents return home and organize Meloka and Galeda classes in their churches, that they may emancipate the young people.

Solo (vocal)—Miss Irene Bell.

Reading—Little Miss Augusta Panneil.

Instrumental solo—Mr. Taylor.

Vocal solo—Miss Allene Steward, Cincinnati.

Dr. W. T. Aminger, president of State University, was presented, who spoke in the highest terms of the great work being done by the C. B. E. S. S. convention.

Vocal Solo—Mrs. Fannie Pennell, who almost brought the convention to its feet.

At the close of the last session the convention expressed a vote of thanks to citizens, hosts, hostesses, pastor and all concerned, in making this meeting one of great success.

They extended special thanks to the Public Ledger for the generous use of its columns.

The Finance Committee's report showed total amount of money raised, $246.25.

The convention adjourned to meet with Centerville Baptist S. S., 1915.

Benediction by Dr. W. T. Aminger.

MISS MARTHA E. WILLIAMS, President.

Maysville lost the Saturday afternoon game to Chillicothe by the score of 5 to 3. Sanford pitched a better game for the locals than Aultman did for the visitors, but Chillicothe got all the good breaks.
